

WINNERS ANNOUNCED IN LOS ANGELES LISZT COMPETITION
Pasadena City College, Harbeson Hall
Saturday, November 3, 1990

The first Los Angeles Liszt Competition included forty-seven piano and voice students from twenty-seven teachers in the daytime auditions. The evening concert featured an illustrated tour of the Budapest Liszt Museum given by Mária Eckhardt, director of the Liszt Ferenc Museum and Research Centre in Budapest, and performances by the first prize winners. The evening concluded with the awarding of over two thousand dollars worth of prizes and the announcement of the grand prize winner.
